

At Discover Year, we embrace diversity in all its forms and therefore seek to recruit participants with varied perspectives, backgrounds and opinions. While we take an inclusive approach to admissions, it is vital to the success of the program that participants be committed to the process of self-development and remain open-minded. We are looking for young adults who are motivated to uncover their greater purpose in life and to figure out how they can make the most of their unique potential.

For this reason, admission to the Discover Year requires two steps:
